Acknowledgements

EDKINS (George). Betty and family would like to thank family and friends who came to George's funeral and to those who sent so many lovely flowers, cards and donations to the hospice. To Better at Home carers. Day and night he loved you all. To the hospice night nurses while still at home, and to the nursing and voluntary staff for your kindness and care when George was admitted to the hospice. To Macmillan and Red Cross for the loan of equipment to help George. To the ambulance staff who took great care in moving George from the hospice to the Elms Nursing Home. Unfortunately, a short stay, but with a lot of care. Thank you for your kindness to Dr A.Croft and nursing staff at St Mary's Hospital, to Mrs A.Davis for a lovely service and William Hall for the excellent funeral arrangements. Thank you all.

GREEN Brenda Ellen

Steve and Teresa would like to thank all of the family and friends who came to Mum's Celebration of Life Service and to Amy Brading.

Thanks also to all of the hospice staff who helped Mum through her final days in dignity and peace.

HARDY Barry
