Deaths

DOWNER Mary

Nan, September 9, 1926 - February 9, 2010.

Thank you for the rich tapestry of wonderful memories which are ours forever.

Your charm, your incredible generosity and your laughable stubbornness

I feel privileged to have been with you and shared your love until the end of your time in this world.

You will remain one of life's most unique and real characters. Love, your granddaughter Lucy xx.

Na Na.

Na Na, I want to buy you a present, it is going to be a fairy. Love, great-granddaughter Sophia xx.

DOWNER Mary

No time to say goodbye to my lovely, funny, naughty Nanny Mary.

Such happy memories forever. Thanks Nan, for everything. Love, Scott xx.

FITZGERLD (Sylvia Winifred). Fell asleep on February 10. A kind and gentle Mum, Nanny and great-Nanny. Forever in our thoughts. Eve, Claire, Richard, Lauren, Joel and Harry.

FITZGERALD Sylvia Winifred

nee Lipscombe

Born: April 27, 1923.

Died: February 10, 2010.

Died suddenly, but peacefully, at home in her sleep.

Much loved.

Mother of Valerie, Mother-in-Law to Robert Nan to Stephen and Claire, great-Nan to Chelsie and Abigail, Nan-in-law to Mel and Mark.

Mum, only time can heal the pain and make the sorrow fade, but time can never take away the memories you made.

It is said in one religion that tears of grief are the coins God accepts to allow a soul into heaven.

So we have paved the way for you with our tears.

Good night and God bless.

JACK William (Bill)

William Jack, who was known as Bill, died on Wednesday, February 3, aged 82, from an aortic aneurism and leukaemia.

Bill died peacefully at St. Mary's Hospital with his wife June by his side.

Bill was born in Glasgow in 1927 and moved away with his late wife Margaret to start a new life in London.

He had a full and interesting life. During the war he served in the RAF regiment in India and Egypt. He trained as an engineer and worked at De Havilland and many other engineering firms.

Bill then settled in Poole and remained there until his wife Margaret passed away in 1993.

He was married to June in 1995 and they moved to the Island in 2006.

Although Bill had been ill for some time, he loved to be active and enjoyed the outdoor life that the Island has to offer.

Bill is survived by his second wife June, his son Terry, daughter Susan and grandchildren William, Stephanie and Pamela.
